ORDER

During the review meeting of pending cases held on 17.5.2017, DG directed that the applications for approval of new training institutes for opening up of pre-sea and post sea courses, should be processed on an urgent basis. DG also directed from 15th June, 2017 onwards, all the institutes whose proposals have been scrutinized by the Committee with observations raised, should make a power point presentation to the senior officers of this Directorate. The power point shall be inclusive of all the details like land documents/lease agreements, Business Plan and Project Feasibility Report, Source of funds and the compliance of the observations raised by the Scrutiny Committee.

2. DG has also directed that the observations raised and conveyed to the training institutes shall be strictly complied by the training institutes within one month from the date of receipt of observations failing which it will assumed that the institute is not interested in pursuing their proposal further.
3. This circular is issued for transparency and speedy clearance of the proposal from the Directorate's side and also from the applicant institute's side.
4. This issues with the approval of the competent authority.

(Sandeep Awasthi)
Asstt. Director General of Shipping
