Sub: Basic modular courses and Passenger Ship Familiarization course at Lakshadweep Islands – reg.

Directorate General of Shipping in its endeavour to promote maritime education and training and as a part of its commitment to the development of Lakshadweep Island had decided to conduct five basic STCW modular courses and Passenger Ship Familiarization course at the Minicoy Islands for the natives of Lakshadweep Islands. This will enable them to obtain Indian Continuous Discharge Certificate (CDC), a pre-requisite for getting jobs on board ships. Accordingly, the Directorate successfully conducted the subject courses at Minicoy Island from 9th April, 2018.

2. In continuation with the training at Minicoy Island, the Directorate has further decided to conduct the said training for an additional batch of 200 candidates at Kavaratti. The Directorate plans to conduct the 15 days' course from the 29th April 2018 to 15th of May 2018 at Kavaratti.

3. The Director General of Shipping has nominated Capt. Vinay Kumar as course in charge and DGS official Shri Ashish Wankhede, DDG(Trg) as designated authorities for signing the certificates for the courses conducted at Lakshadweep islands.
